WHEREAS, the County of Ventura (“County”) is committed to preserving and nurturing public access and participation in meetings of the Ventura County Cultural Heritage Board (“CHB”);

WHEREAS, Government Code section 54953, subdivision (e), of the Brown Act, authorizes the legislative body of a local agency to use remote teleconferencing in meetings by members of a legislative body, without compliance with the requirements of Government Code section 54953, subdivision (b)(3), subject to the existence of certain conditions;

WHEREAS, as a condition of extending the use of remote teleconference meetings pursuant to Government Code section 54953, subdivision (e), the CHB must reconsider the circumstances of the state of emergency that exists, and the CHB has done so;

WHEREAS, the CHB does hereby find that because the territorial jurisdiction of the CHB is identical to that of the Ventura County Board of Supervisors, any future findings made by the Ventura County Board of Supervisors reconsidering the circumstances of the State of Emergency and finding the need to continue to meet remotely in compliance with requirements set forth in Government Code section 54953, subdivision (e)(2), would also apply to the facts and circumstances regarding teleconference meetings to be held by the CHB; and

WHEREAS, the CHB does not always meet every thirty (30) days as set forth in Government Code section 54953, subdivision (e)(3), and between the dates when the CHB’s meetings are held, the CHB considers it appropriate to adopt by reference, effective upon the date of adoption by the Ventura County Board of Supervisors, the future resolutions of the Ventura County Board of Supervisors, reconsidering the circumstances of the State of Emergency, and finding that the State of Emergency remains active and continues to directly impact the ability of its members and attendees to meet safely in person, and that the Ventura County Health Officer, Dr. Robert Levin, continues to recommend measures to promote social distancing to minimize the spread of COVID-19 including that all legislative bodies in Ventura County continue to meet remotely, as further explained in the Recommendation to Promote Social Distancing, which has not been rescinded, and which remains in effect;
